80 Hour Basic Motor School
Sponsored by the Beaverton Police Department

The Beaverton Police Department's Traffic Motor Unit, with the assistance of Hillsboro Police and Washington County Sheriff's Office are currently planning an 80 Hour Basic Motor School that will be held beginning Monday April 25, 2011 and run through Friday, May 6, 2011. There is a class limit of 10 students.

The student will be instructed in the area of basic police tactical motorcycle operation as recommended by NAMOA. Upon completion the student will receive a training manual with the curriculum and in-service guidelines. The student will also receive a certificate of completion after being signed off as completing 40 hours with a senior motor officer in the field after the school.
